

a WOW Lab

BLUEPRINT

The Siphontific Method

Introduction

Students will watch water appear to defy gravity and travel upwards in this exciting activity that introduces siphons while demonstrating the importance of being inquisitive, testing hypotheses and thinking critically.

This activity has a small scale hands-on component which complements the large demonstration and introduces the principles of the scientific method.